Reception of friends and well wishers in the residents of some Christians in Kaduna, has become a welcome development, where the home of a renown Christian cleric Pastor Yohanna D. Buru of Evangelical Church, S/Tasha Kaduna, and also Chairman, Peace Revival And Reconciliation Forum(NGO), Kaduna chapter, was filled up with people from all walks of life to merry with him on the auspicious occasion of the birth of Jesus(AS) whom also much loved and cherished by Muslim fellows.

It has become habitual practice by members of the Islamic Movement in Nigeria, paying homage to some Christians across Nigeria to strengthen the existing friendship, good understanding and peaceful coexistence among each other.

On this Christians day, Tuesday 25/12/2018, tenths of hundreds of people from all walks of life paid such homage to Pastor Buru in his resident located at S/Tasha, Kaduna.

Members of Academic Forum of the Islamic Movement in Nigeria, Kaduna chapter, leads by Sheikh Ibraheem Zakzaky were among the visitors received by Pastor Y. D. Buru.

During the visit yesterday led by Dr. Shu'aibu Musa, he was admired with a merry Christmas gift in honour of the birth of Jesus(AS) whom we Muslims also much love and cherish as one of the Apostles of Allah(The Most High).

In the lung run, Pastor Buru expressed gratitude for the visit, and also prayed for the immediate release of leader of the Movement, Sheikh Ibraheem Zakzaky, his wife and other faithful followers in illegal detention.
