The Islamic Movement in Nigeria has strongly condemned the provocative airstrike ordered by President Trump that led to the death of the Iranian top general and Guards Commander, Quasem Soleimani and the Iraqi Commander, Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis.

This was made known to pressmen today by Ibrahim Musa, President Media Forum of the Islamic Movement in Nigeria, in a press statement he shared to them.

The duo Commanders were martyred following a drone strike specially ordered by president Trump, “whose action has dangerously made the world on the edge of a very destructive war,” according to the statement.

“The Islamic Movement sends condolences to both the leaders and peoples of Iran and Iraq for these colossal loses, and share their grief at this trying moment,” the statement added.

Below is the press statement:

Islamic Movement Condemns Provocative US Airstrike in Iraq

The Islamic Movement in Nigeria has received the very sad news of the killing of General Qassem Soleimani, Commander of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) Quds Force Soleimani and the Iraqi Commander, Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis in US airstrike at Baghdad international airport today. We strongly condemned this provocative airstrike ordered by President Trump.

The US killing of Soleimani is a “declaration of war” on Iran, which has now dangerously made the world on the edge of a very destructive war. For quite some time now, President Trump has been looking for ways to drag the Iranian nation to a senseless war.
