A High Court in Abuja has granted bail to six sisters of the Islamic Movement in Nigeria after they have spent 13 months in Prison. The bail was granted last week, but the conditions for the bail have not been fulfilled until today Thursday 3/9/2020. The 60 brothers had sent to Kuje Prison centre on 22nd July 2019.

After series of trials, they have been granted bail. They were arrested during the usual peaceful procession demanding the release of Sheikh Ibraheem Zakzaky in the city of Abuja. Shaikh Zakzaky and his wife are still held in detention in Kaduna State prison in spite of their poor health condition which requires proper medical attention.

Below are captions of how they were excitedly recieved by brothers:
