The Hearing of the case of Sheikh Zakzaky has been adjourned by the Judge to 8th of 9th of March 2021. This has raised concern over the deteriorating health condition of the Sheikh. While many saw it as a delay tactic for the fact that the victory of the Sheikh in Court is imminent as all witnesses brought by Government could not satisfy the Court over the death of Sargent Dankaduna.

The Leader of the Islamic Movement as spent five years in detention since Dec 2015 despite his critical condition.
